

Oakdale Precision, Inc.

<https://oakdaleprecision.com/career/inspection/>

Inspector

Description

Inspection of parts, assemblies, and weldments in a precision environment.

Responsibilities

- – Setup and perform In-Process, Final, and First Article inspections, be able to compensate for coatings where applicable.
- – Communicate measurements to shop floor to drive dimensions to nominal.
- – Document and manage any Non-conformances discovered during inspections.
- – Communicate, with job managers, customers, and vendors on a variety of issues.
- – Maintain quality records on the server.

Qualifications

- – Well versed with the ASME Y14.5.
- – Experience with inspection of threads, including screw thread, pipe thread, and British threads.
- – Familiar with common post processes such as heat treat, plating, part marking.
- – At least 3 yrs experience in mechanical inspection.
- – Be able to use all hand tools (OD, blade, pitch mic's) and height gages.
- – Be able to program or operate a CMM using PCDMIS
- – Be able to program or operate an OGP or Keyence vision system.
- – Knowledge of SPC a plus.

Job Benefits

- We have a first rate benefits package (MED + Dental + Optics + 401k).
- Work in very clean temperature & humidity controlled labs.
- Get to use first rate inspection equipment, see website
<https://oakdaleprecision.com/equipment/>

Contacts

Send resume to dan@oakdaleprecision.com

Employment Type

Full-time

Beginning of employment

immediately

Industry

Medical R&D, Fluid Flow, Opto-mechanical

Job Location

7022 6th St North, 55128, Oakdale

Working Hours

Day Shift

Date posted

January 14, 2020